ACTIVITIES

He's Little Bobby, that's Tucker Hannon, and I'm Mitchell Roman. You've been a great audience and we Love You!

IT'S TIME FOR PIGGING OUT

The pig looks fine.

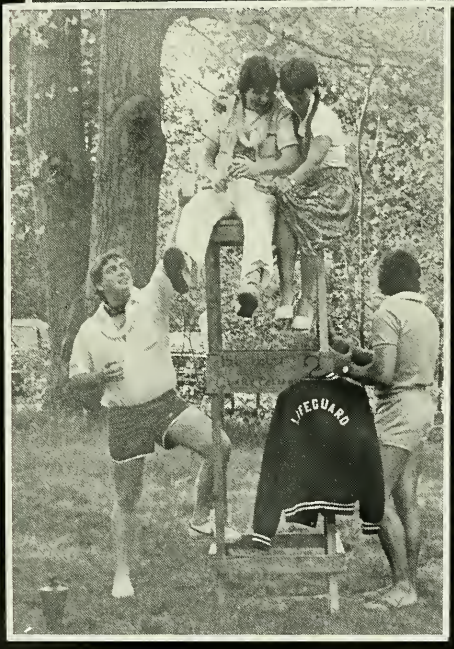
Main House boys get carried away, as always.

The three bambimbos!

Eddie shows no finesse.

Thanks should go to Bill Baldwin for helping Curry see a little diversity and excitement as he and the 156 boys pulled off the best event of the year. It was a special night to remember. The casualities were two 40 pound oinkers, and three "professional" hula dancers. And special thanks goes to the back bathroom ledge for supporting all eleven house members, as they danced to the crowd's content.

Pig Roast Row.



The Galloping Gator gets happy feet.

Ingram loses control.

MAIN HOUSE PARTY

The Main House Happy Hour proved to be a huge success. People danced their buns off. Thank you for giving 156 House a break from their regular happy hours. It was a rest well deserved.

CURRY

Curry goes to the slopes once again.

Ski Patrol buzzed to the rescue.

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT

The International Students and a host of others had a night of merriment and shared several different cultures and ways with each other through song and dance. The whole school was invited to participate in a learning experience concerned with other nations which are a part of Curry.

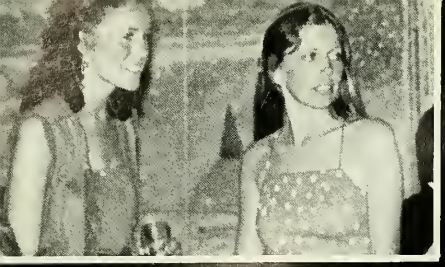
The Theatre Production Class showed people at Curry that the world of theatre is alive and well as they sparkled in the spring productions of "Black Comedy" and "The Dumb Waiter". Above- The talents of Craig Barry and Cheryl Deutsch,with the acting abilities of Todd Cosgrove and Jeff MacNutt, made the "Dumb Waiter" come alive.

"Black Comedy" was the highlight of the evening as eleven hard working students caught the audience in their grasp and supplied all with gut splitting laughter. The cast was comprised of such talents as Robert Massotti, Paul McDonnell, Linda Morrison, Cynthia Ventre, Patty Savage, Richard Slaff, Francis Kwiatkowski, and Thomas Elliott. The credit for backstage work and assembling of these future stars goes to Bill Robertson, Cindy Hilyard, and for the directing to Michael Barrera.



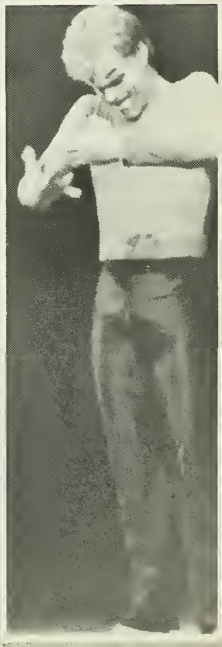
Kathy and Lesley keeping an eye on Liv.

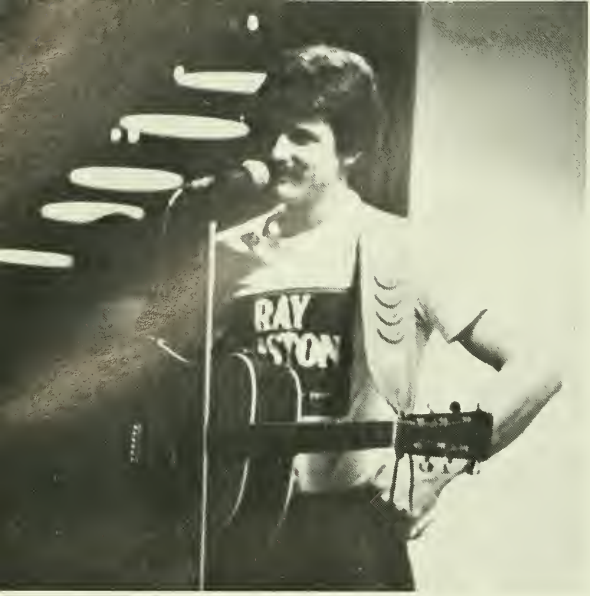
Dio and Hannon entertaining all as the band takes a break.

Spring Weekend '82'!

The madness of this man struck the cafeteria by storm one day, and the question was asked, "Who the Hell was that?," It was the crazed Tim Settimi, who is a comedian, mime, and instructor all rapped up into one. He held a workshop and put on a show for the Student Activities Office. For those of you who saw him, you may never experience anyone of his caliber again.

Trent Arterberry's third year at Curry proved successful once again as the audience responded to the diverse skits and actions of Mr. Arterberry. Thanks for three years of dedication to bringing this campus the world of mime.





Ray Boston- Musical Comedian- Being the Literary Editor I should write something else, but I didn't see him. But I heard he was good.

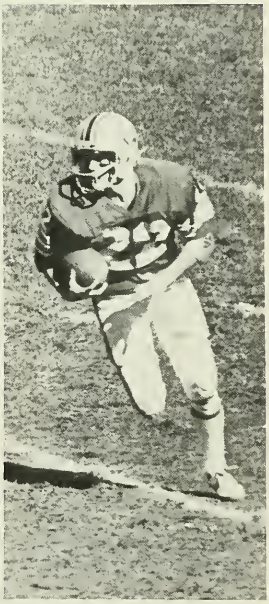
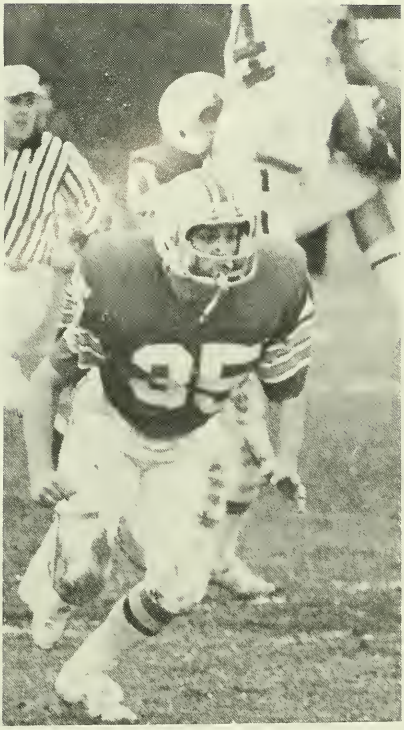
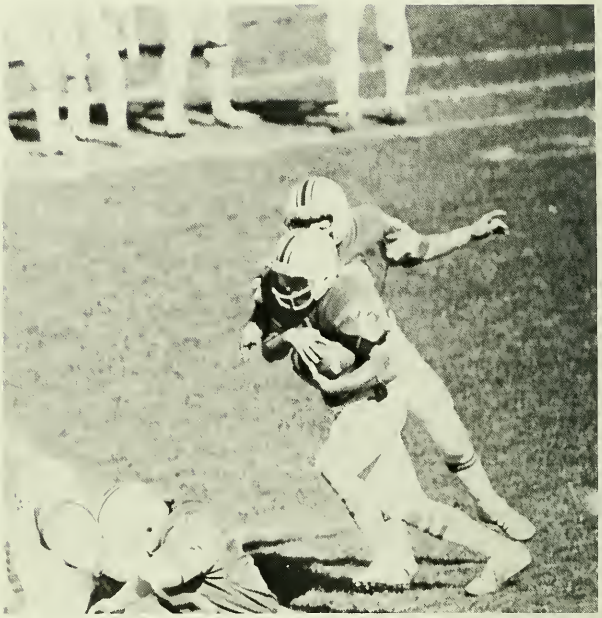
(3-6-0)







The Curry Colonels provided much enthusiasm throughout the College community this season.

Although they finished at 3-6 the spirit that was shown by each player, was evident by their play on the grid iron. Under the direct leadership of Phil Nickerson and Dave Moore the team worked all for one and one for all. Through out the past season we all have learned more about ourselves, our peers, and our pride for Curry College.

Front Row: L to R: Rich Tritt, Kip Bush, Bruce Weckworth, Mike Stafford, Mark Sullivan, Bill Burry, Kris Lopes. 2nd Row: L to R Ed Shore, Paul Radley, Mark Klein, Dave Gillerlain, Scott Buchanan 3rd Row: L to R: Jeff Caplan, Greg Bailey, Mark Fitzgerald, Stephen Wells, Dave Aykanian, Brad Pittman, Marty Mullin. 4th Row: L to R: Larry Conlon, Art Goelman, Dan Coehan, Steve Bryant, Todd McKenzie, Bill Mooney. Top Row: L to R: Asst. Coach Tony Martone, Tom Pope, Ken Wagner, Ed Evans, Head Coach Jim Kaufman. Missing: Dave Abady, Robert L. Boyle, Gary Glaser, Halteman McFarlane, Lyle Millett.

The 1981 mens soccer team finished their season with a very respectable 8-6 record. The team showed considerable improvement over the previous years record of 4-9-1. Dedicated coaching was provided by head coach Jim Kaufman and new assistant Tony Martone. Some fine leadership was displayed on the field by the tri-captain, senior halfback Bruce Weckworth, senior goalie Mike Stafford, and Junior fullback Mark Sullivan.

The squad began with a strong start as they posted an early 7-2 record, with impressive victories over Boston State, Framingham State, and Mass. Maritime. The remaining five games featured some powerful opponents including UMASS-Boston and Gordon College. The Colonel booters managed to win only one of those five games.

The success of the team can be attributed to the experience of a few upperclassmen and to a solid core of freshman. These freshmen provided the needed scoring addition to the team. The outlook for next years team appears to be excellent.

In closing, a special thanks to all who devoted their time to the team. The hard work has paid off. Good luck to the 1982 team.

The 1981 Women's Varsity Soccer Team had a phenomenal turn around season. They lost fifty percent of last year's record breaking team to graduation, and the beginning of the season showed the unfamiliarity of the players. They lost the first four games, a turnaround coming vs. Harvard in a downpour. The potential of this reborn soccer team finally came through, as they stormed over the Crimson 3-1. After beating Bates up in Maine 2-0, they didn't lose another game, and their final record was 8-6. The top scorer and M.V.P. was Dawn Perry. The team would have never continued their victorious ways without this year's new members.

When I think about the 81-82 Curry Basketball team, the first thing that comes to my mind is togetherness; Not only did we have a good relationship on the basketball court, but most important we had an outstanding relationship off the court as well, and that is the main factor of winning games in any sport. The basketball program is on the move, and I am truly happy to have been a part of it. Good luck next year.

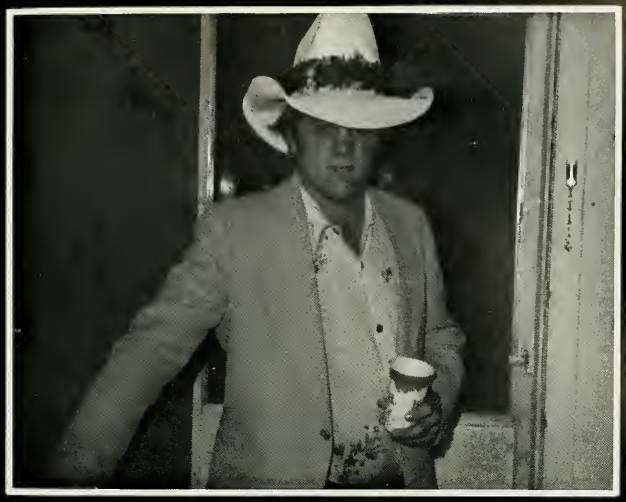
DEDICATION

Robert Smith
"Smitty"



Every person born into this world represents something new, something that never existed before, something original and unique. Smitty was a special person, he was born with a heart of love and malice towards none. A friend is someone who stands up for us even when everyone else disagrees with us. A friend is someone we can talk to any time, about anything at all. A friend is someone who is fun to be with, even if there's nothing to do. A friend is someone who cares about us, Smitty was a friend.

Death can not kill what never dies. This is the comfort of friends. Though they may die, their friendship, the love they gave, is forever present.

He had the talent for making your bad day end with a laugh. Thanks for being a Budweiser Buddy.

The class of 1982 wishes the Smith family the best of respects and to show our appreciation for having the privilege of meeting "Smitty", Robert Smith. A person with the gift of giving a bit of himself in friendship to all.

Thanks Smitty.

Special Thanks to Smitty's friends for their words of love and concern.

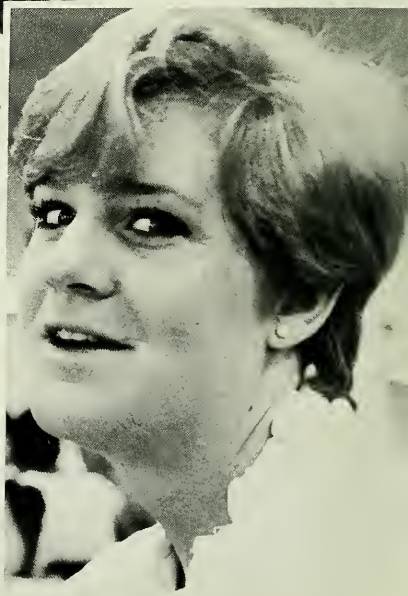
GRADUATION

1982



At the beginning of April, Curry did not have a yearbook. Margaret McClung, Bill "salty" Robertson, Nancy Bartlett and Eddie Shore decided to take over and try and do a yearbook. A lot of quick thinking and hard work, and some help from Joe Diangelo, Al Harrison, Tom G., Lori Pederson, Jody Cudy, Jody Farrington, Dawn Taylor, Summer Mead, and especially Kathy Manning and Lois Wallace, did the trick.

I thank you all very much!!!

Eddie Shore

P.S. O.K. Patrick-me-bucko you can start cleaning up Curry and make it presentable to the world once more.
